

GIVE NATURE SOME SPACE and LEAVE NO TRACE!

As a Junior Ranger, it is your duty to practice and teach others about Leave No Trace. Practicing Leave No Trace means treating nature with respect. First, read the principles of Leave No Trace around the edge of the game. Then, use a coin and flip it for each turn to play the game below.

Name: _____

Heads - move one space.

Tails- move three spaces.

The Seven Principles of Leave No Trace are:

Plan Ahead and Prepare

Respect Wildlife

Be Considerate of Others

Minimize Campfire Impacts

LEAVE NO TRACE TRAIL
Start

You plan ahead and prepare for your trip by studying the rules & maps. Move ahead 2 spaces.

You hike and camp on stable surfaces, such as rocks, to prevent damage to the ground. Move ahead 1 space.

You stop to photograph a moose and get to close. It runs away. You are lucky it didn't run at you! Move back 2 spaces.

You didn't put your food in a bear resistant food container. A bear gets into camp and eats your food! Go back to the beginning.

You cook with a backpacking stove so that you don't disturb the area with fire rings & burn scars. Move ahead 3 spaces.

You stop to photograph a moose and get to close. It runs away. You are lucky it didn't run at you! Move back 2 spaces.

You hike past already made camp sites to put one in a new place. You smash grass and plants. Move back 1 space.

You pack out everything you brought in with you, including your trash and leftover food. Move ahead 2 spaces.

You cut down trees to build a fire. Move back 3 spaces.

You find caribou antlers on the trail and after examining them, you leave them just how you found them. Move ahead 1 space.

You hike past already made camp sites to put one in a new place. You smash grass and plants. Move back 1 space.

CONGRATULATIONS Junior ranger!
By practicing Leave No Trace you left Alaska beautiful. Everyone who visits after you will be able to experience the natural beauty and treasures the way you did! Thank You!

You carve your initials into a tree and damage the natural beauty. Go back 1 space.

You dig a "cathole" far away from camp and water to go to the bathroom. It looks like you have never been there because you pack out your toilet paper too! Move ahead 4 spaces!

You hike past already made camp sites to put one in a new place. You smash grass and plants. Move back 1 space.
